National DEVELOPMENT Team - Wakesurf

Introduction

Wake Canada's wake program goal is to support our country's top riders as they strive to achieve success at our sport's highest level of competition.

The Wake Canada National Team is a two-tiered program which consists of:

- (1) National Senior "Elite" Team members (see separate selection criteria for national Senior team)
- (2) National Development Team members

Athletes are only eligible to be selected to one team, "Senior" or "Development", within the National Team program.

Development Teams' Goal

To foster the development of 18 & Under riders who demonstrate the potential to achieve the highest level of success targeted for National Team members while vying for podiums in respective age categories at provincial, national and international level events.

Prerequisites for Eligibility

To be eligible for consideration to the Canadian Wake National Development Team, the athlete must be:

- A member in good standing with their provincial wake sports provincial sport organization or Wake Canada / WSWC
- Are deemed eligible by the WWA (World Wake Sports Association) and/or CWSA (Competitive Wakesurf Association), and/or IWWF (International Water Ski and Wakeboard Federation) as the case may be
- Have competed at the 2020 Wake Canada National Championship for their respective discipline: Wakesurf, Wakeboard Boat or Wake Park (Full Cable and/or Straightline)
- Hold a valid Canadian passport

Selection Term

Subject to the rider signing a Team Athlete Agreement, the term of team selection shall be for one year, from April 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022.

Selection Criteria

Selection to the 2021 Wake National Development Team will be determined on demonstration of individual competition performances and training commitment. A significant factor will be the results at the 2020 Wake Canada National Championship*: Wakesurf, Wakeboard Boat; Wake Park (Full Cable and/or Straightline).

Development Team members will generally be selected from the 14-18 year old age group, although exceptions can be made for younger riders with exceptional results.

*If an athlete could not attend a National Championship in their respective discipline because they are participating on the same day at an event of higher ranked status or due to extenuating circumstance such as covid restrictions, they should submit a letter to the WCNTC for consideration.

Selection Process

The following criteria shall be considered for 2021 Wake Canada National Development Team selection purposes:

- Results from 2020 Wake Canada National Championship as outlined above
- Results from 2020 World Championship or similar highest level international championships
- Level of commitment to training, competing and potential, as determined by the WCNTC, through the review of the Wake Canada National Development Team Application (Form 1)
- Qualities of fair-play

Results will be considered based on the weighting system below.

2020 Canadian National Championship	2020 "World" or Equivalent International Championship
1st place - 10 points	1st place - 15 points
2nd place – 9 points	2nd place – 12 points
3rd place – 8 points	3rd place – 10 points
4th place – 7 points	4th place – 9 points
5th place – 6 points	5th place – 8 points
6th place – 5 points	6th place – 7 points
Semis – 4 points	Semis – 6 points
Quarters – 3 points	Quarters – 5 points

Should a rider so qualified decline the National Development Team selection invitation, vacant spots will be filled by the next highest ranked rider. Should the Top 3 Women or Men decline, selection of riders to vacant spots shall be at the sole discretion of the WCNTC, which may or may not take into account results used in the above criteria.

Should there be a tie; the decision will be at the sole discretion of the WCNTC based on the qualifications and selection process.

Competition Readiness

The WCNTC may, at any time, at their discretion, disqualify an athlete from being considered for selection to the National Team or remove an athlete after selection if, due to illness, injury, lack of commitment to compete and/or train, or other reason which affects the athlete's ability to perform, or if the WCNTC believes it unlikely that the athlete will be able to perform at a level consistent with the scores upon which the selection of the athlete to the Team would be or was based. The WCNTC will advise the affected athlete of his decision. Such a decision may be appealed in accordance with WSWC's Appeal Policy.

Extenuating Circumstances

If extenuating circumstances such as covid restrictions prevent an athlete from competing in selection events (outlined above) or adversely affect the athlete's performances, the WCNTC may make exceptions to the selection criteria. If an athlete wants the WCNTC to consider making exceptions to the selection criteria, the athlete must make a written submission to the WCNTC. The written submission must be submitted by email info@wakecanada.ca by March 22, 2021. Following receipt of the submission, the WCNTC may require additional written information from the athlete. The WCNTC's decision will be communicated to athletes who may be affected by the decision.

Appeals

An athlete may appeal any decision made pursuant to this document. An appeal shall be made and dealt with in accordance with the most recent version of WSWC's Appeals Policy. A copy of the Appeals Policy is available from WSWC upon request and is posted on the WSWC's website at www.wswc.ca.

Application - Declaration of Intent to Qualify for National Development Team

In order to be considered for Wake Canada National Development Team selection please complete and sign the "Development Team Application – Declaration of Intent" on the WakeCanada.ca website and submit via email to: info@wakecanada.ca by March 22, 2021.

Submission of an Application and meeting Prerequisites for Eligibility does not necessarily earn Team selection. Selection is subject to process outlined above and discretion of WCNTC. The number of Development Team spots is based on available budget as allocated annually by WSWC and supplemented with fundraising by Wake Canada and administered by WCNTC.

Expectations of Team Development Athletes

Wake Canada expects all athletes to act professionally with respect to all other competitors, coaches, officials and members of the wakesurf and wake sports community. Attitude (in and out of the water) must be exemplary!
